Pause at Moses Point where, at low tide, the rocky shores are a beachcomber's delight. Tide pools reveal tiny crabs, starfish, and other sea creatures. Sea lions, seals, dolphins, and the occasional pod of killer whales parade by. Eagles sometimes join in a feeding frenzy off the point.

Actually, two islands connected by a one-lane bridge, Pender Island is a cyclist's delight with pasturelands, forest-clad hills, and several beaches. Built atop a former limestone quarry over a century ago, this landscaping gem was the vision of Jennie Butchart, who dreamed of transforming the site into a grand sunken garden.
